

Statements

Read the following statements aloud. After you read each statement, give pupils enough time to reflect and decide if they should move a step forward if the statement applies to them. Ask them to check where they are standing in comparison to the other pupils and reflect on their “role/identity”.

1. You and your family always have enough money to cover your needs.
2. You live in a decent house with telephone, TV, and internet.
3. Your classmates do not make fun of you because of the way you look or because of you are different in some way.
4. The people you live with ask your opinion about important decisions that concern you.
5. You have music and arts afternoon classes.
6. You have never felt that someone discriminated against you because of your or your parents' origin, background, religion, or culture.
7. You get medical tests often, also when you are not ill.
8. You and your family go on holiday at least once every year.
9. You can invite your friends to stay over for dinner or stay overnight.
10. When you grow up, you will go to the university or you will whatever job you will decide.
11. You and your family go to the cinema, theatre or museum at least once every month.
12. You get new clothes and shoes whenever you need them.
13. You have plenty of time to play with your friends in the afternoon or weekends.
14. You have access to a computer and to the internet.
15. You believe that you have a happy future ahead of you.