- a) Great choice! It is fantastic to collaborate creatively and thus overcome one's own boredom.
- b) Don't you think that it would be easier to get through a long car journey by killing time doing something creative together than by doing things on your own?

Page 1

- a) It is understandable that you all would have liked to have something to eat as quickly as possible, but would it not be more fun to prepare it on your own?
- b) Good choice! Cooking and preparing your own food is a creative process and at the same time promotes a sense of belonging.

Page 2

- a) What if you could at least help your dad and thus shorten the waiting time for dinner?
- b) Great choice! Your decision to skewer the potatoes on wooden sticks is really creative.

Page 3

- a) Maybe it's really demanding to create and compose your own song, but wouldn't it be worth a try?
- b) Great choice! What a lovely way to express your own feelings by singing songs together accompanied only by dad's guitar. The best way to foster one's own creativity.

Page 4

- a) Removing a spider takes courage. But how about at least trying? You will probably feel good afterwards.

- b) Good choice! What a brilliant idea to capture the spider with a can. A very creative solution.

Page 5

- a) Great choice! What a lovely idea to create your own story and share it with your dad and sister.
- b) Wouldn't it be much better to spend the evening together with your father & sister instead of getting on with the laptop?

- a) Great choice! This action brings out many different sides of your huge potential of creativity.
- b) Wouldn't it be much better to think about alternative ways on how to tell your mum how much you all miss her?

Page 7

- a) It is good that you used a translation app to find out why the children were crying. But are you sure that there are no other or more unusual or even creative options besides a mobile phone that offers a solution to this problem?
- b) Good choice! Communicating in this way reflects high creative potential and is a perfect way to build closeness and trust to others.

Page 8

- a) Isn't it a pity that you couldn't find another way to reach the other side of the river? So how about using your knowledge and creativity to find an even better solution?
- b) Great choice! Although the situation was not easy, you immediately attempted to come up with a solution and were quite creative in doing so.

Well done for completing your assignment! Next time try to reflect sometimes more to find other or more creative ways of solving problems you may encounter.

Page 10

You reached the end of your adventure! You did very well! You reflected on your actions and creative potential to find sometimes non-common solutions to problems that you encountered.
