- a) Wouldn't it help if you all set the same goal as a team?
- b) Good choice! You will all set the same goal and you will collaborate so that everyone will be on time.
- c) Wouldn't it be better if you set a specific wake up time for everyone and then collaborated to see if everyone is up to make sure that all of you will be on time?

- a) What if Gino doesn't manage to catch up though? Wouldn't it be better if you went to the forest all together as a team?
- b) Frank and Gino will be together, but wouldn't it be safer and more fun if you were all together?
- c) Good choice! You decided to go to the forest as a team, so you'd better wait for everyone to arrive.

- a) Wouldn't it be better if you did some preparation first? Checking your equipment and distributing responsibilities among the team members would help a lot.

- b) Good choice! You made sure that you have everything that you need and each of you has a role in the team. You are all set to have a great walk!
- c) Wouldn't it be better if you did your preparation all together as a team?

- a) Wouldn't it be more efficient and safer if you collaborated with your friends to move it?
- b) Wouldn't it be more efficient if you collaborated with your friends to find a solution to the problem all together?
- c) Good choice! You will all work together as a team each assuming different roles to solve the problem.

- a) Good choice! This way you will manage to overcome the obstacle safely by collaborating with your friends.
- b) Wouldn't it be better if you collaborated with your friends to make sure that everyone would be safe?
- c) Wouldn't it be better if you held hands to make sure that everyone would be safe?

- a) Wouldn't it be better if you tried to find a compromising solution, taking into account Frank's condition? It is important to remain together as a team.
- b) Wouldn't it be better if you tried to find a compromising solution instead of missing the experience of visiting either the waterfalls or the lake?
- c) Good choice! You found a compromising solution by taking into account Frank's condition.

- a) Isn't it a pity that Gino won't eat anything? Wouldn't it be nice if you could offer him something to eat so that no one from the team is hungry?
- b) This is a great thought! Wouldn't be even better if the others shared their meals with Gino, too, since you are a team?

- c) Great choice! You all show collaborative spirit and empathy towards your friend!

- a) Wouldn't it be better if you gave Dino a chance to express his thoughts and feelings, if he is willing to do so?
- b) Good choice! You showed empathy and compassion towards your friend. You showed interest in his feelings and acted as a good listener. In addition, you tried to find a solution to his problem.
- c) Wouldn't you feel better if you showed more compassion to your friend, who is probably sad that he won't do anything in the summer?

- a) Controlling your emotions can help you avoid arguing with your friend. We all make mistakes after all! Arguing won't help you anyway; you can take a moment to relax and think of a solution to the problem instead.
- b) Good choice! You identified your emotions and tried to control them. You showed empathy and understanding towards your friend who made the mistake, as well as confidence in the abilities and knowledge of your friends and of yourself.
- c) Showing compassion and understanding as well as controlling your emotions could help you build better relationships with the people around you. Also, wouldn't it be better if you tried to find a solution to the problem together with all your friends?
