- a) It is understandable that you don't feel so confident yet, but you should keep in mind that being courageous and open to new things would help you to develop and learn more things!
- b) Great idea! This is the perfect way to take advantage of each other's knowledge and skills so that you can both practice and improve.

- a) Well done for sticking to the initial plan and for not choosing the easy solution; this is the only way you can take advantage of the time you spend together in order that you both improve your language knowledge.
- b) This would certainly make both of you feel relieved, but you should not forget your initial goal, which was to improve your language knowledge.

- a) Great choice! You should take advantage of all the opportunities for learning that come up!
- b) It is certain that you will have fun at your friend's place, but are you sure you want to miss a unique opportunity to experience something new which will support you in your learning?

- a) This is the easy solution, but in this way, you won't practice the Spanish you have learnt and won't be able to know if what you have written is correct.
- b) Great choice! In this way, you take advantage of everything you have learnt. In addition, you will learn from your mistakes.

It is great that you have learnt some Spanish already, but it is a pity that you cannot participate in the video. Next time, try to put more effort, taking advantage of all the opportunities for learning that appear inside and outside school.

Well done! You have put a lot of effort, taken advantage of all the opportunities for learning and were in control of your learning. You have already gone very far, but you will achieve even more if you continue at the same pace!
